Dear Ellen,

Andrews Institute (AI) is proud to join the National Athletic Trainers Association's (NATA) Youth Sports Safety Alliance (YSSA). We are excited to be apart of the annual summit and share the vision for reducing and preventing injuries in youth sports. As a clinical facility responsible for administering care to athletes of all ages, we hope to see fewer and fewer youth injuries in our clinic. The efforts made by NATA YSSA will help to make an impact on these issues.

AI fully supports the YSSA Call to Action informing and educating parents, athletes, coaches, teachers, and others on various sports injuries and conditions. The health and safety is utmost important for our young athletes.

Thank you allowing AI to be apart of this Alliance and look forward to supporting and assisting in anyway we can to improve youth safety.

Kindest regards,
